THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1960

PRESENT . . .

THE ECHO

Just as it takes the leaves of bright array to complete the picture of autumn, it takes YOU, the students of Grand Blanc High, to put the finishing touches on each school year . . . As time marches on, the leaves brighten with age but all too soon they drift on, only to follow in their paths . . . AS THE LEAVES TURN from vivid green to the lustrous hues of autumn, another school year is ushered in and the hallways and classrooms are filled with YOU who give this year special significance . . .

The word dedicate has a significant meaning . . . it means to set apart for a purpose . . . men dedicate themselves to God . . . men dedicate themselves to their professions . . . monuments have been dedicated to those who gave their lives for their country . . . therefore, a dedication should be a meaningful and rewarding event . . . its benefactor should be deserving of its acclaim in every respect . . . and so, with these thoughts in mind, we dedicate the 1960 ECHO to . . .

With the closing of the school year, Mr. Batchelor will have completed thirty years' service at Grand Blanc High.

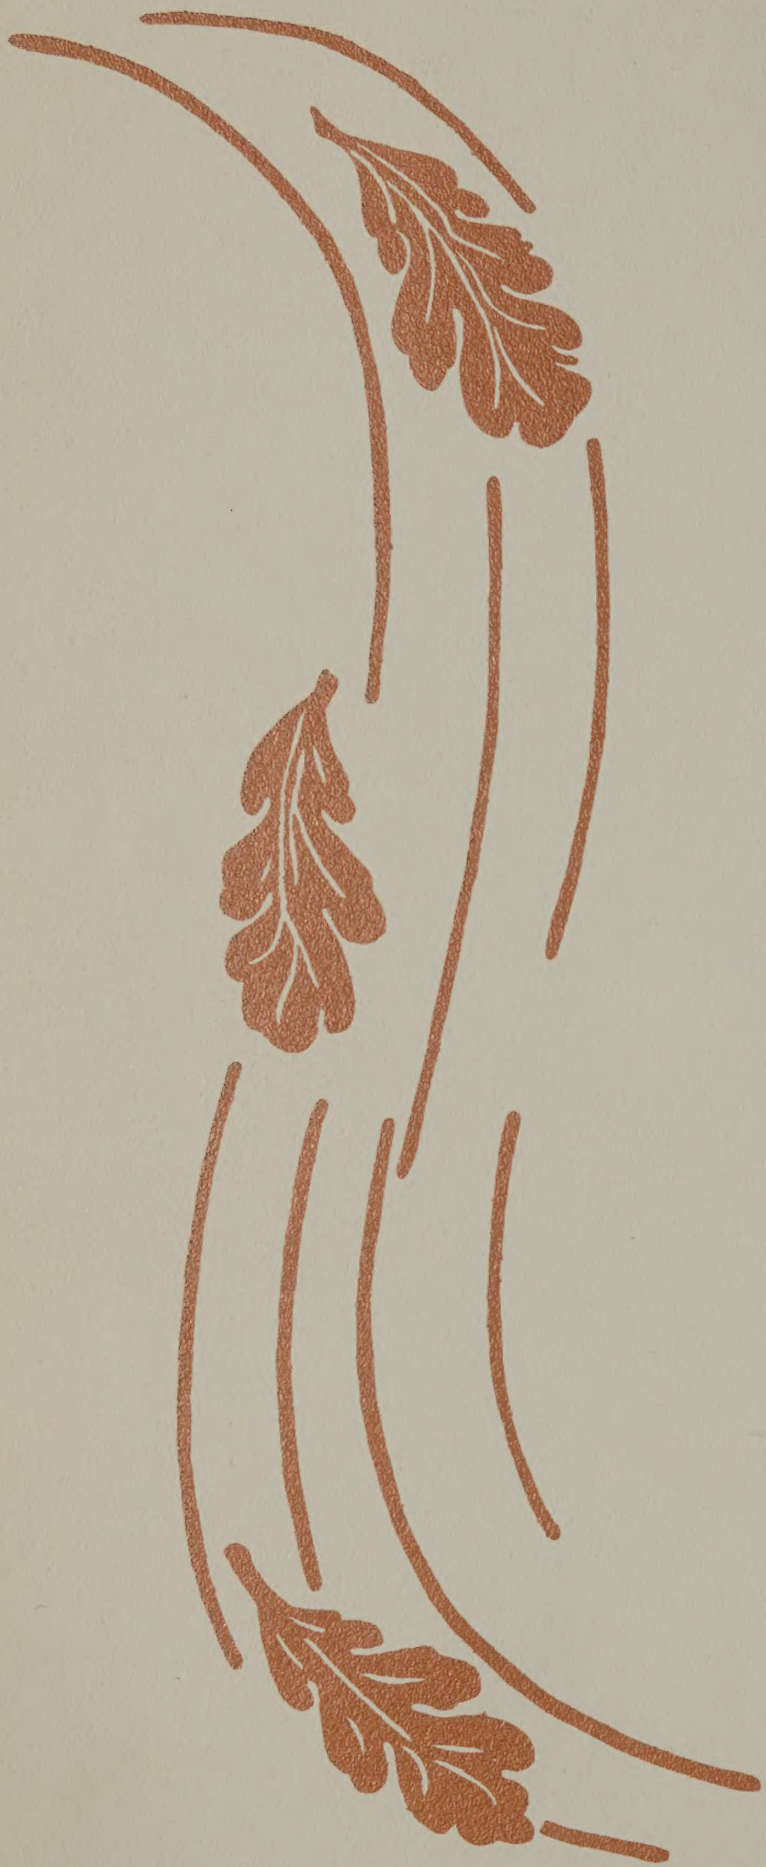

For all these years he has been symbolic to us as . . . coach . . . teacher . . . conversationalist . . . athlete . . . counselor . . . athletic director . . . and in all these capacities . . . as friend.

In this small way, we wish to acknowledge Batch's many contributions to G.B.H.S., by dedicating the 1960 ECHO to him.

As we look at the new elementary schools, we realize the genuine effort and long hours of hard work which are necessary for such an elaborate undertaking that could only be accomplished by our very competent school board consisting of Mr. Ezra Perry, Mr. Waldo McNaught, Mr. Paul McGrath (President), Mr. Lew James, seated, and Mr. Willard Mechem (not pictured).

COMPETENT HEADS OF OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM

Due to the combined efforts of Mr. A. J. Brendel and Mr. Howard Pepper, we have had the opportunity to be formed as intelligent and upright citizens. What a debt is ours! May we thank them for their tireless and consistent effort in our behalf.

GRAND BLANC TOWNSHIP UNIT SCHOOL
GRAND BLANC, MICHIGAN

Dear Seniors,

You are on the very threshold of your future, and about to take your place in a competitive society where education, citizenship, and a desire to succeed are essential if you are to achieve your goals.

All of you have great potential; use it to the best of your ability.

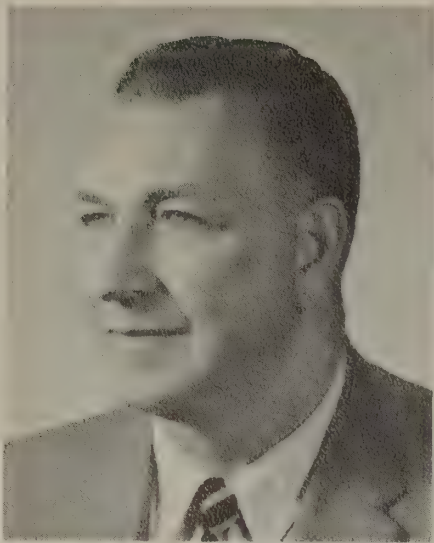

Your family, your church, and your school have helped you to lay the foundation for adulthood where you will be facing responsibilities that you never knew existed.

My sincere congratulations to each of you for your many accomplishments in the past; may you put forth every effort to meet the challenges of the future.

Most sincerely,

Paul D. [Signature]

"Best wish in your future years of education"
D. Wideman

These 8th graders relive early Michigan History through the study of Indian Relics.

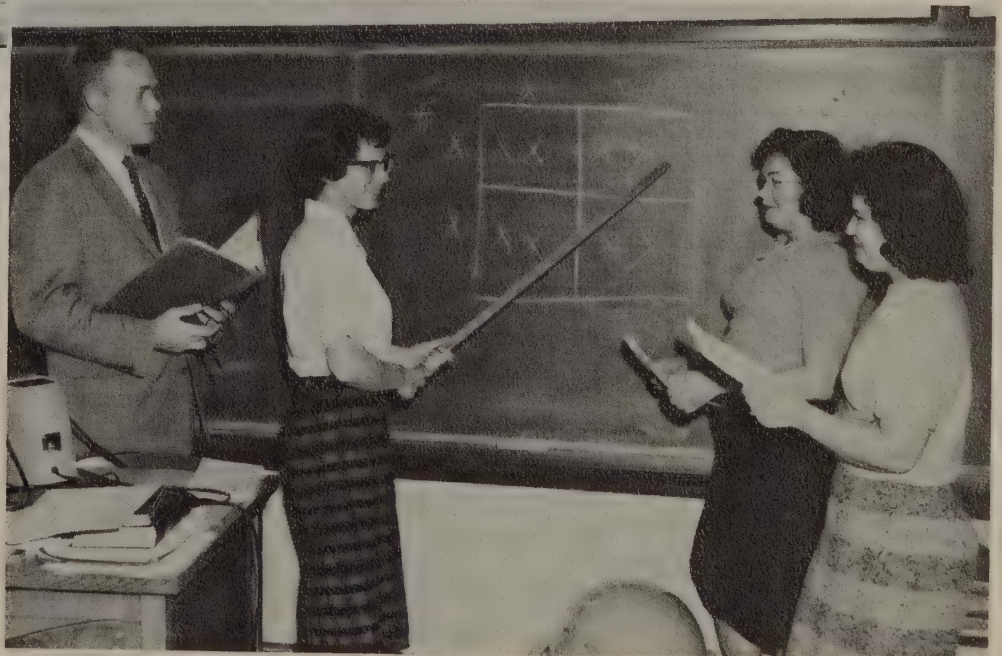

The study of Civics prepares America's future voters for their vital tasks.

SOCIAL STUDIES . . . LINK PAST AND PRESENT

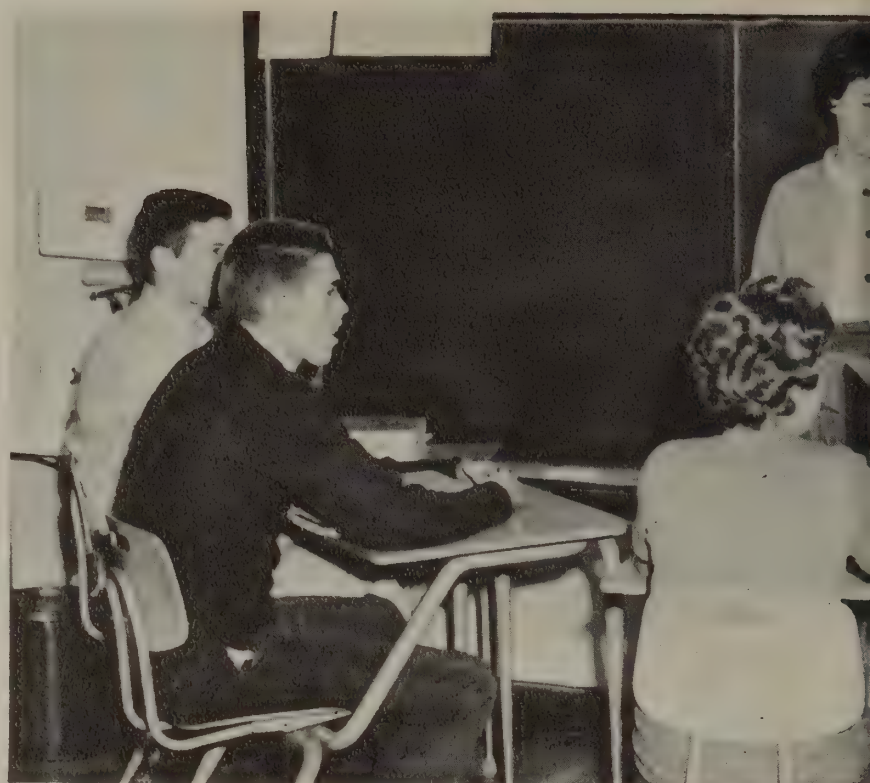

Ready, Aim, Fire . . . This is no small war gang . . . American History students, Dan Foran and Virginia Daniels, exhibit extra credit projects.

The study of heredity is only one aspect of the many problems discussed in Mr. Thomas' sociology class.

Fred Barnes, student teacher, aids Linda Bruner in her penmanship lesson as the other students work to perfect their writing skills.

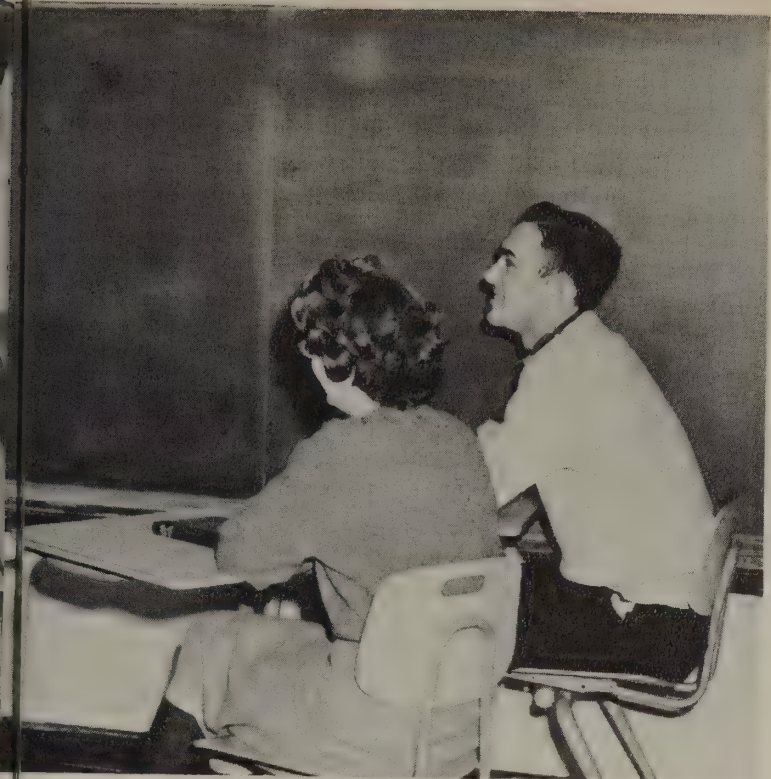

Speech class proves alarming especially when you're named as the next impromptu speaker . . . Betty Jennings attempts to collect her thoughts and composure.

LANGUAGE STUDIES. . .

Latin II may be a particularly small class, but the students as well as Mrs. Hyatt seem to be enjoying themselves.

"Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn and caldron bubble" . . . three witches re-enact the caldron scene from MACBETH.

"Surely somebody must know where to find the answer," comments Mrs. Hofmann to a group of her sophomores.

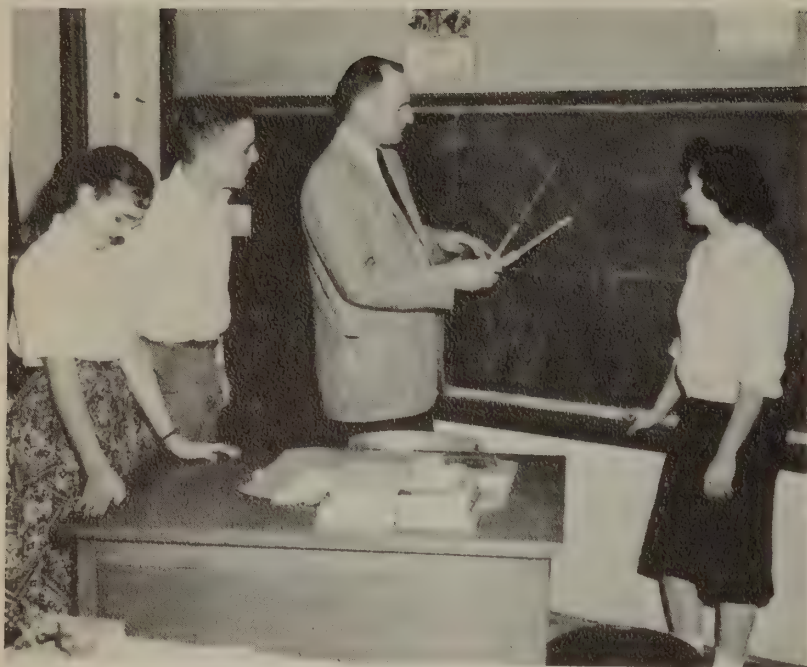

KEY TO BETTER COMMUNICATION

Doris Podjun records her Spanish lesson as Edna Bick and Joan Haywood consult Miss Gonzales about a troublesome pronunciation.

Mrs. Cmejrek seems amused at Tom Snoball's portrayal of Macduff.

"I'll never catch on," comments trig. student Ron Michelson as Sue Bishop attempts to show him how "obvious" the principle of the slide rule is.

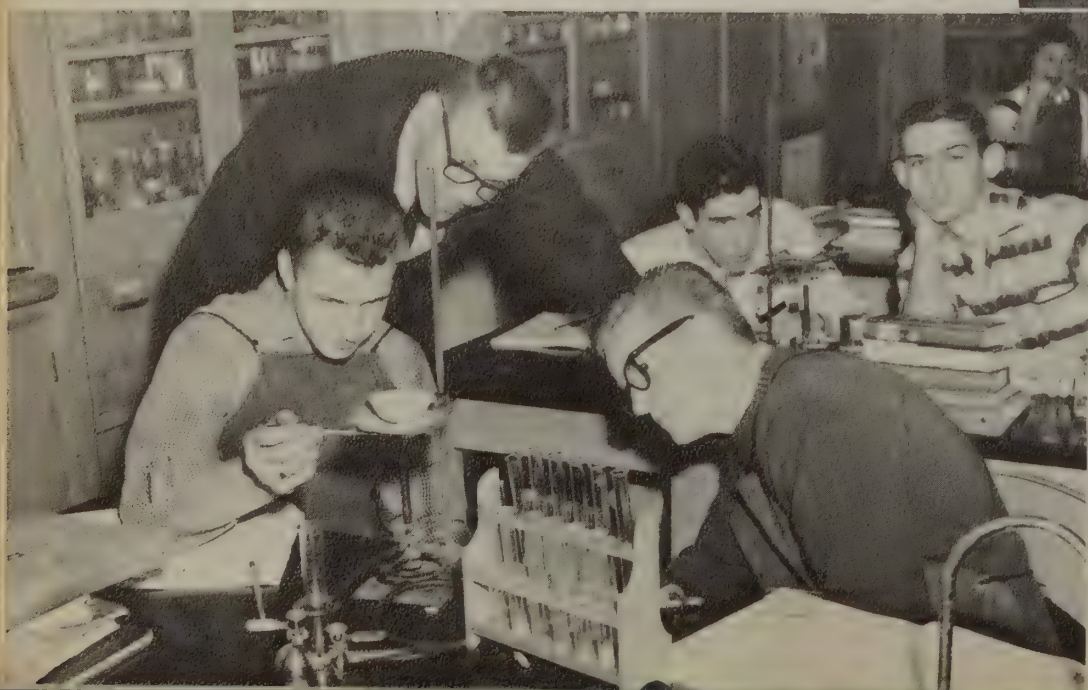

Basic math principles are covered by Mr. Flynn's eighth grade math classes in preparation for advanced courses they will take in senior high . . . Zandra Buben, Teddy Walton, and Lynette Mraz get special instruction in the proper way to bisect an angle.

SCIENCE AND MATH. . .

TOMORROW'S BUILDING BLOCKS

Freshmen biology students spend much time getting acquainted with scientific apparatus . . . here several are engrossed in the use of the microscope.

Mr. Christman comes to the aid of Chemistry students Bob Almli and Philip Calvert who are desperately trying to perform a neutralization experiment.

The 80-voice A Cappella Choir offers to the interested vocalist the enjoyment of performing concerts for their own satisfaction as well as others . . .

Cadet Teaching offers qualified Juniors and Seniors the opportunity for getting an inside look into the teaching profession . . . Carol Van Wormer finds her experiences with Mrs. Michelson's fourth graders most gratifying.

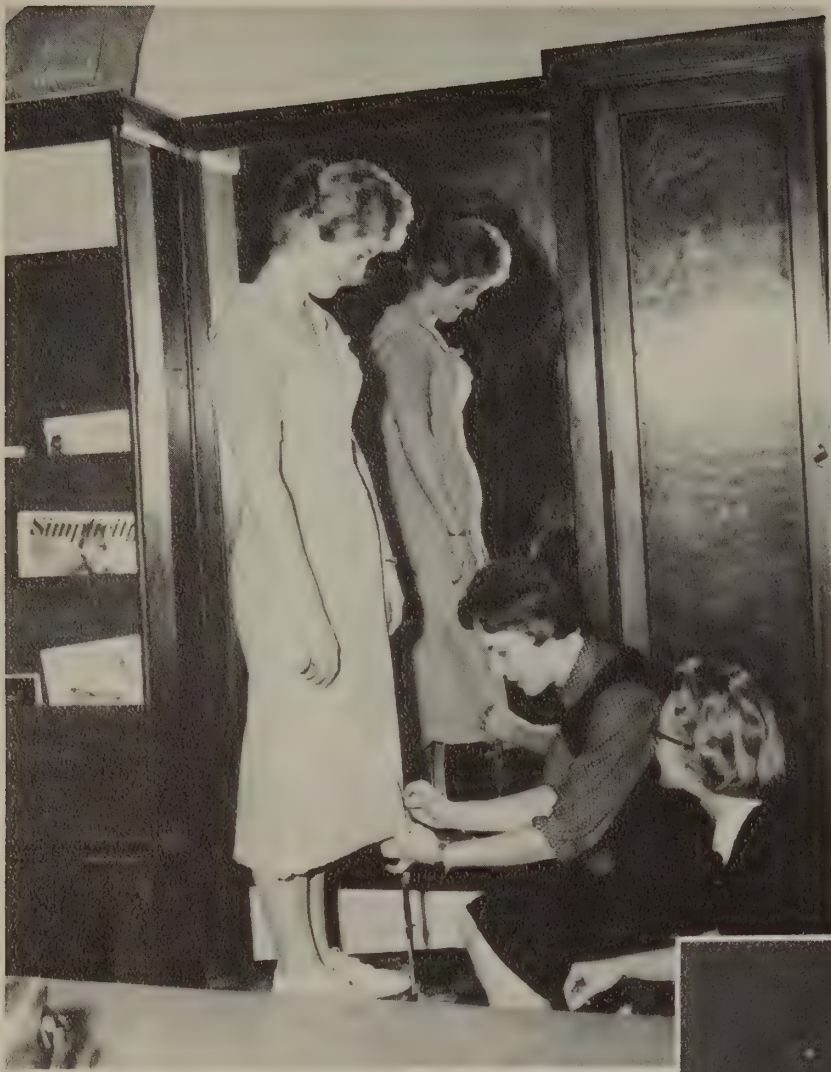

SPECIAL INTERESTS PURSUED BY STUDENTS

Varsity band offers the qualified instrumentalist the opportunity to combine talents with fellow band members . . . the result: a GBHS Marching Band known for its good music, precision marching, and colorful presentations . . .

Bi-weekly publication of the "Bobcat Banner" is the undertaking of the journalism class . . . planning, writing, proofreading, securing ads, typing, and selling the finished paper are among the many tasks facing the student journalists like Bill Gratsch, Karen Chapman, and Sharron Bishop . . .

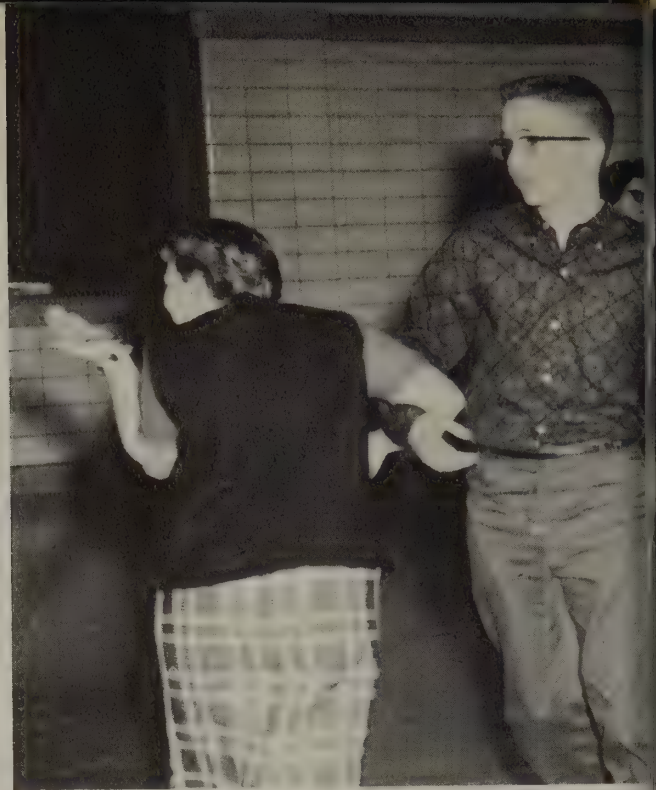

Advanced homemaking courses are available to all interested upperclassmen . . . Here, Mrs. Kuehn helps Diana Daniels hem Betty Connell's jumper.

Pat Nyman, one of the few girls enrolled in drafting classes, receives help from Mr. Lorion on a troublesome problem.

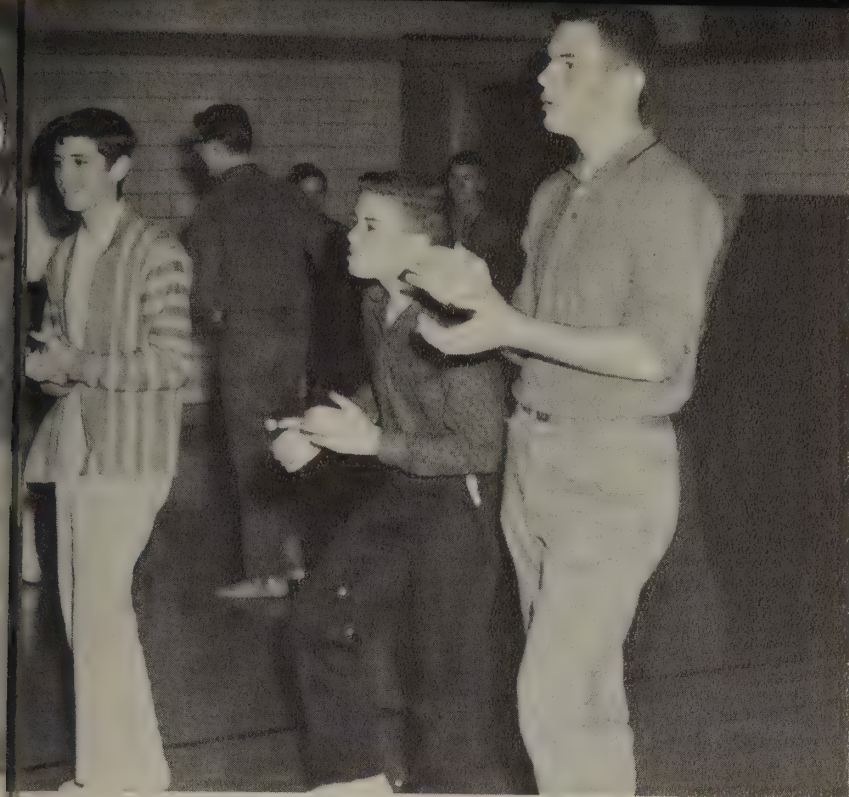

Typing need not be as troublesome as Dorothy Jamrog makes it appear . . . At times it can be exasperating, however, indicates Kent Mangus . . . Charlee Borton seems to have the right idea . . .

Gym, a required course for all freshmen, consists of many varied activities .

SKILLS LEARNED IN

Here several students are engrossed in a combined square dancing class . . .

PERFECTING ARTS

With the assistance of Mr. Wideman, David Porter learns how to operate the lathe.

"After you, girls" . . . Mr. Hoppert strikes a debonaire pose as he starts out another day in his life of a drivers' training teacher.

Girls, who gain experience for future jobs through office practice under the direction of Mr. Bradley, practice to improve their skills.

ALL YEAR LONG . . . GB STAFF WORKS FOR US

"Do potato chips really have 200 calories?" . . . Sharne Etheridge, Joyce Wiest, and Vada Bryant are only three of the over 400 served daily by Mrs. Ter Burgh and the other cafeteria staff.

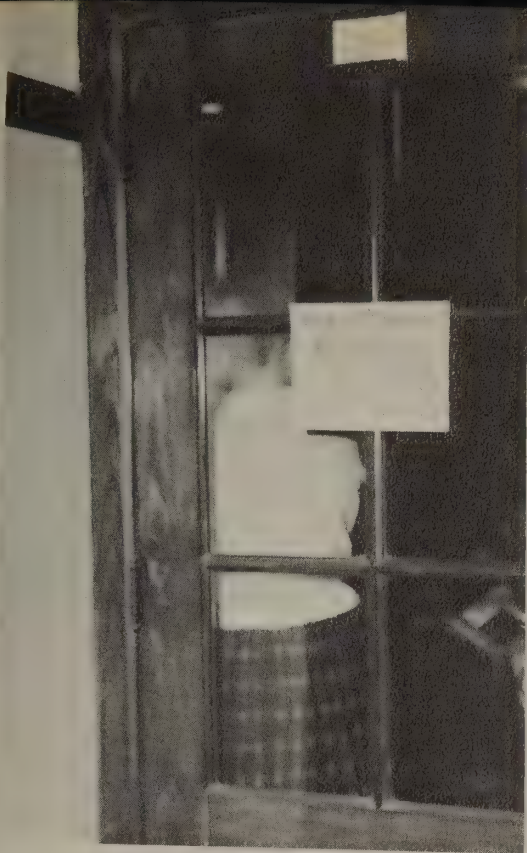

A familiar sight to all Grand Blanc students is the snake-like yellow line of busses, 30 in number which transport some 3015 passengers daily through rain, snow, fog, sleet, freezing drizzle . . . all kinds of weather.

The constant replacement of burnt-out bulbs . . . the always breaking windows shades . . . the never-clean blackboards . . . the water-spattered windows . . . the janitor's job is never ending . . . Mr. Haddrill, Mr. Malley, and Mr. Russell, are only part of the backstage crew which strives to keep our building in top shape.

"I need these tests in half an hour" . . . "Did anyone turn in a brown and yellow striped wallet?" . . . "May I use the phone to call my Mom?" . . . "Do you have the keys to the ice cream machine—I lost my dime" . . . these are among the fifty million questions answered daily by GB's cooperative office staff: Mrs. Lobban, Maxine Rayner, Mrs. Horton, Kay Burke, and Mrs. Summerer.

Tape recordings, movies, filmstrips, panel discussions, play acting, records add spice to daily classes . . .

Lunch time provides an opportunity for relaxation and relating the day's activities . . .

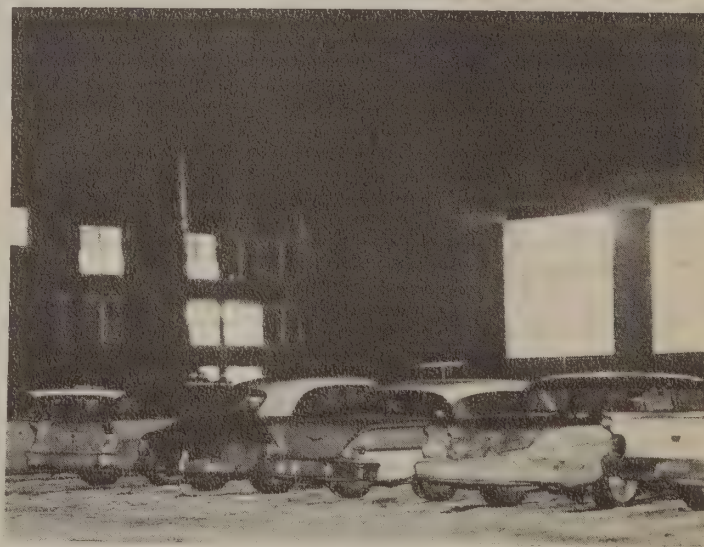

Checking out at 4:15, teachers go home to families, outside jobs, graduate classes, stacks of papers needing grading . . .

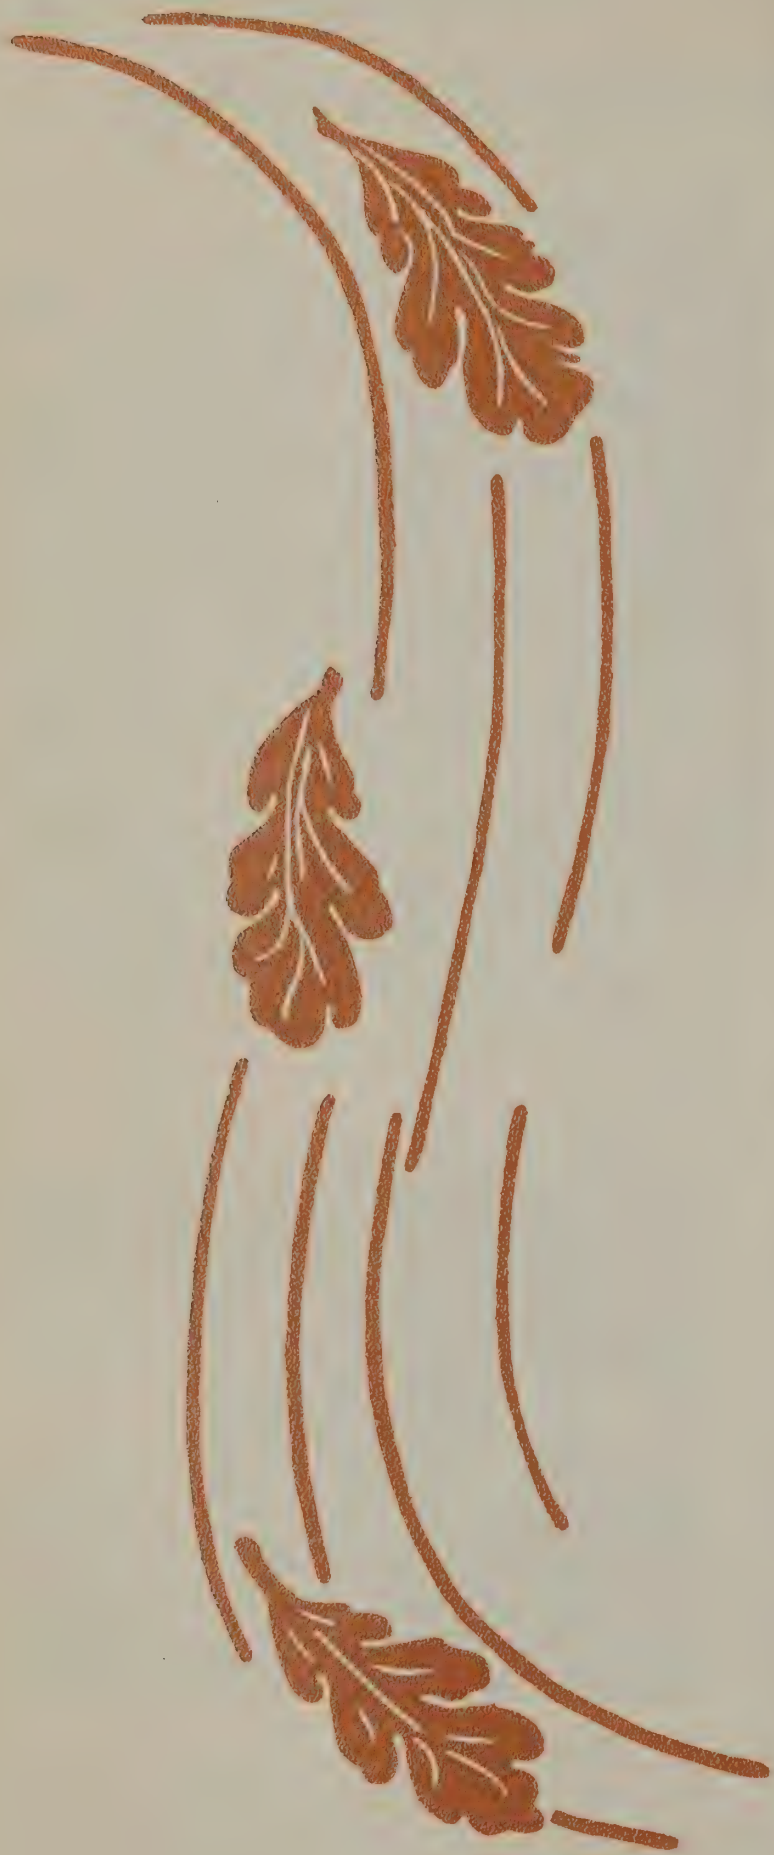

TEACHERS LEAD VARIED LIVES

Exchanging ideas and techniques along with some chit-chat fills many a teacher's conference period . . .

Faculty cars fill the parking lot many evenings while teachers attend PTA, chaperone dances, participate in meetings, correct papers, arrange bulletin board displays, support the teams . . .

VALEDICTORIAN

The highest scholastic honor, that of Valedictorian of the Class of 1960, has been awarded to Larry Kenneth Agesen for his outstanding scholastic achievement, 9.45 out of a possible 10. Larry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Agesen, has attended Grand Blanc school throughout his entire schooling. He has a sister, Carol, who now attends the Brendel Elementary School. His activities have not been limited to his studies, but his interests have been divided among athletic participation and club activities as well. His future plan is to attend College, although he is not certain which, and enter the Chemical Research Field.

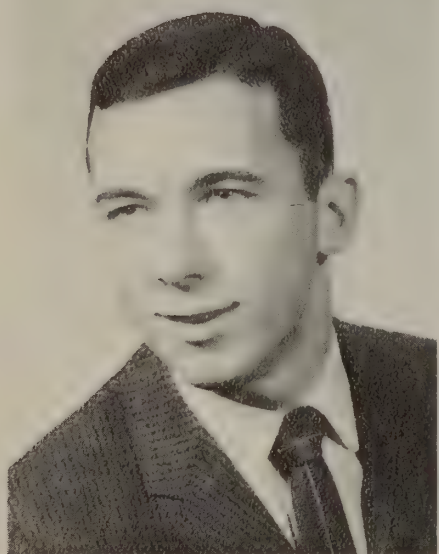

THEY LEAD THE CLASS. . .

SALUTATORIAN

Suzanne Bishop, who has been enrolled in the Grand Blanc School system since the fifth grade, has been honored as the Class of 60's Salutatorian. Sue has taken an academic course in which she has accumulated a Scholastic Rating of 8.96. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bishop, have two other children, Nancy, in the ninth grade and Ross, in the eighth. Sue's interests are vast. She has taken an active part in scouting throughout high school and was selected to attend the Colorado Roundup. Sue has also received various honors which include the Future Homemaking Award and a letter of merit from the National Merit Scholarship Society. Her future plan is to go into the Medical Research Field at the University of Michigan.

MEMORIES ARE

From the first day we enter the door until we depart to the strains of us the memories of the days gone by . . . whether they be our first class project of cramming before exams . . . or the day we first slipped our class ring on our for each of us . . .

Victory means practice plus . . .

A lonely guitar or a good steady beat draws many students to the popular DJ dances . . .

The picture of peacefulness now . . . but just wait

A shining new addition to our showcase . . . the coveted Sportsmanship Trophy.

Prom time . . . the added enjoyment of dancing to orchestral accompaniment

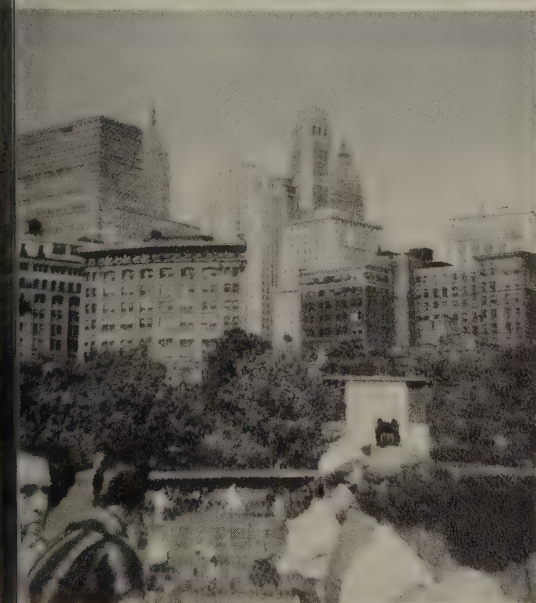

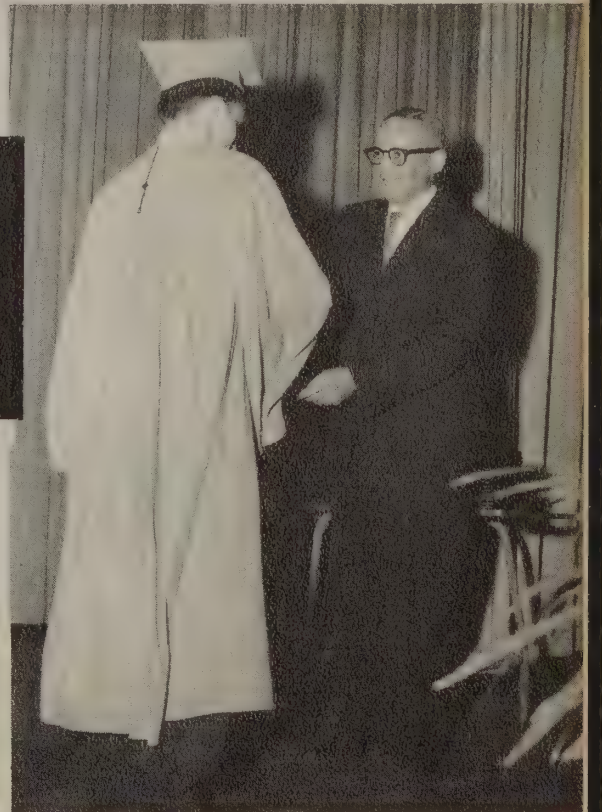

Without the enthusiastic and colorful crowd, no game would be complete . . .

MADE OF THIS...

"Pomp and Circumstance," we gather together various relics which impress upon . . . the thrill of competitive sports . . . the hush before the curtain rises . . . hours nger . . . all these remembrances will linger on and hold a special significance

Hurry and finish decorating . . . stop by the florists get the car washed . . . pick up an extra
"five" from Dad . . . then, off to get your date . . .

Competitive sports . . . more than just players

The Senior receives his diploma . . . the long-awaited, often thought-about dream has finally come true . . .

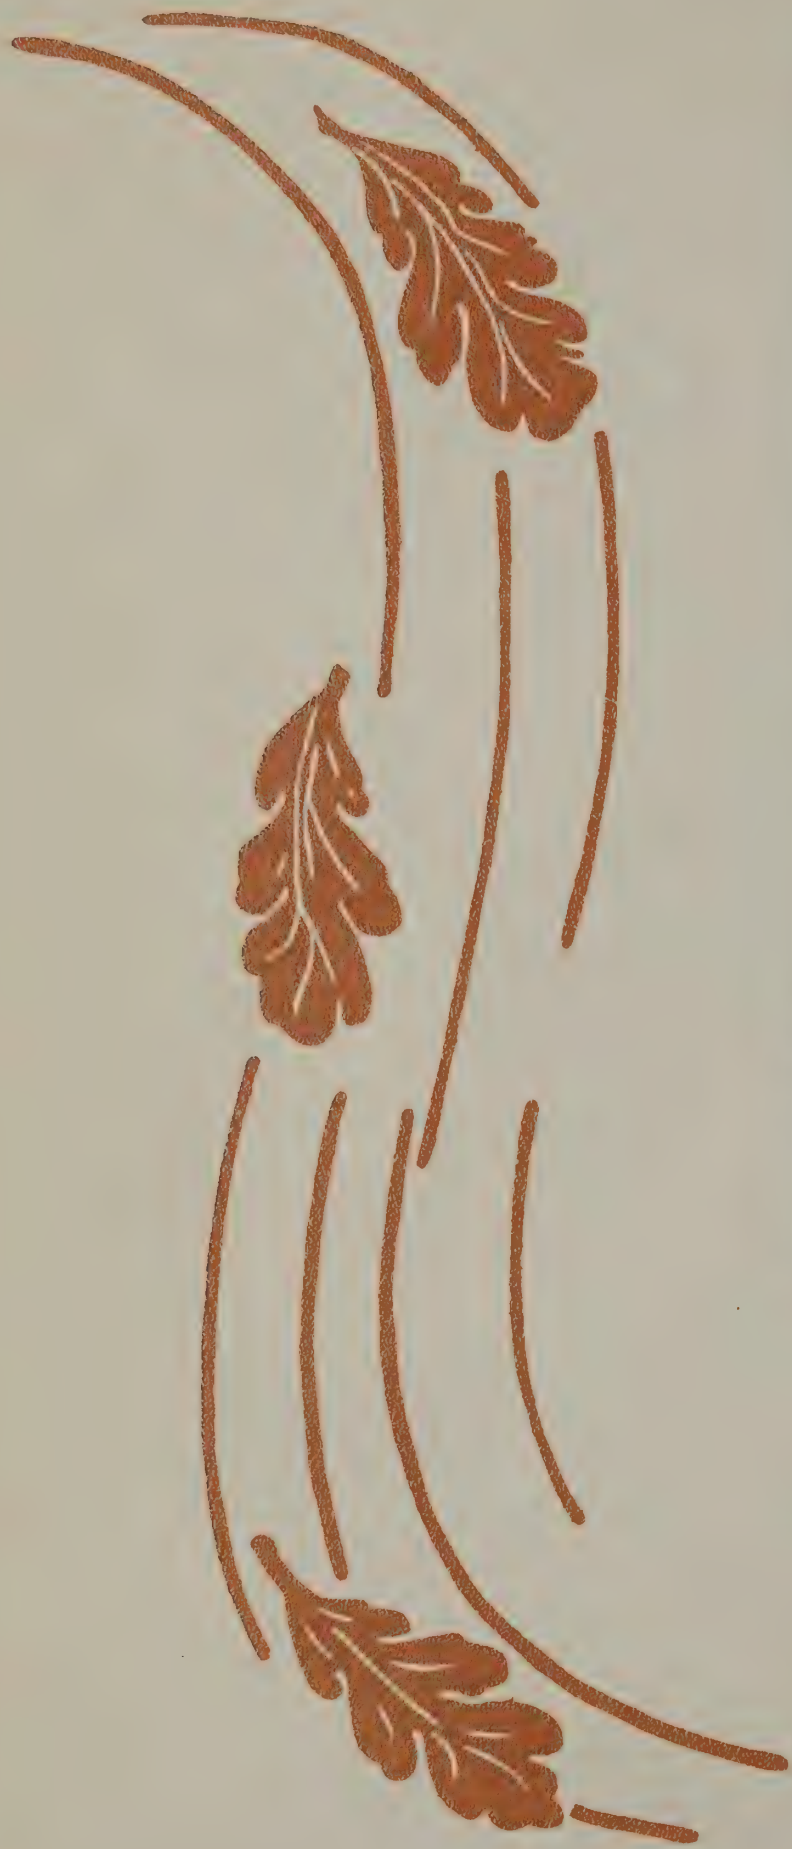

The smell of grease paint and tingle of of excitement surge through the locker room prior to opening curtain . . .

Eager faces scan the Top 10 board in search of their names . . .

New York . . . New York . . . That long-awaited trip . . . a whirlwind weekend of fun and excitement . . .

The homecoming Queen holds the spotlight at the first Queen's Assembly

BOBCATS SNARE TOP HONORS

The Bobcats once again showed their gridiron power by going undefeated in their nine game schedule. Only ties to Clio (13-13) and Mt. Morris (13-13) kept the Bobcats from a perfect season.

Grand Blanc finished 5-0-2 in league play while Co-Champions, Flint Kearsley, finished 6-1-0, their only defeat coming at the hands of Coach Thomas' Bobcats, 15-12. State "B" ratings found the Grand Blanc team holding seventh position, this being the fourth consecutive year they have finished in the top ten.

Senior Len Christman was elected to the All County First Team by the Genesee County Coaches. Receiving positions on the Second Team were Fred Rockafellow, Ron McCullick, Bart Vaughn, and Bruce Griggs.

The graduation of sixteen seniors will find Coach Thomas calling on the Undefeated JV team to complete the lineup for the 1960 season.

Mr. Thomas hands Captain Gratsch the mascot ball.

The Offensive Eleven consist of L. Christman, D. Frasier, B. Griggs, F. Rockafellow, P. McGrath, R. Baumbach, D. McDonald, L. Ageson, B. Gratsch, and R. McCullick.

"Use those Hands," Mr. Williams explains to G. Story and R. Baumbach.

JUNIOR BOBCATS GO UNDEFEATED

Mike Fuller, John Lee, Steve Whisner. Row 3: Coach Batchelor Jack Wiest, Dennis Bjaland, Lane Sadler, Ted Walton, John Lengyel, Gary Cook, Bob Kucherenko, Jerry Dulude, Doynce Beckley, and Mr. Flynn.

Christman, Bob Merrell, Larry Melvin, Ken Burnett, Wade Cousins, and Ron Gray.

BOBCATS CAPTURE ST. MIKES TOURNEY CROWN

Coach Pitock reviews last-minute strategy with captain Pat McGrath.

Capturing the St. Mikes Holiday Tournament with spectacular last minute wins over Davison, Mandeville, and highly-rated St. Mikes highlighted the 1959-60 basketball season.

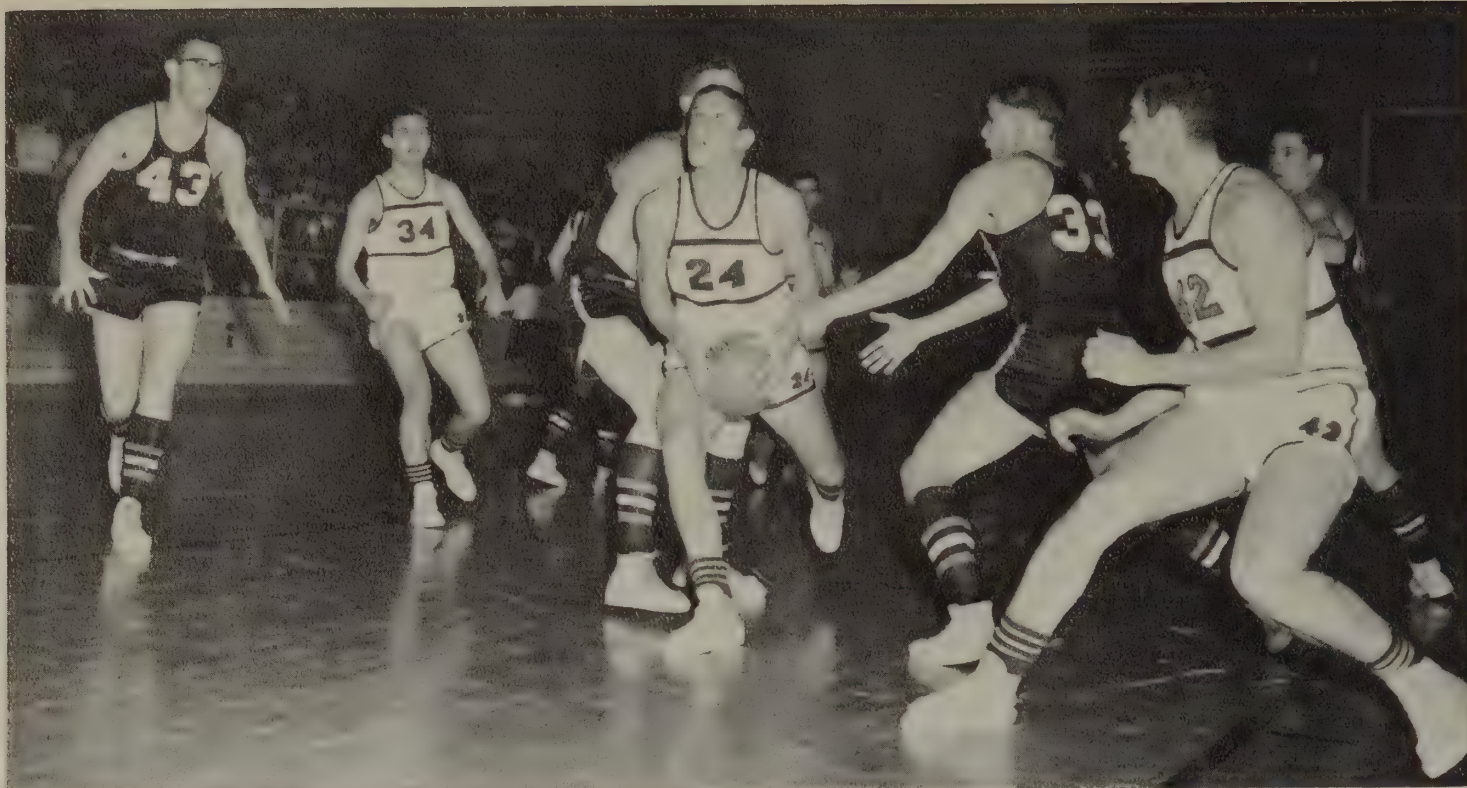

Inconsistency proved to be the team's downfall as they collected a 4-6 league record and 9-8 overall standing. An early season win over the county championship Bendle Tigers was followed in league play by a loss to the Tigers, who took home the Grand Blanc-Bendle Trophy. Other season wins were over Davison, Mandeville, St. Mikes (2), Flushing, Clio, Beecher, and Lakeville.

Senior guard Bill Gratsch, the county's third high scorer, accumulated 298 points in 17 games for an admirable 17.8 game average. Bill secured a berth on the All-County second team, the only Bobcat to do so. Captain Pat McGrath, also voted the team's Most Valuable Player, collected 172 rebounds to lead the team in rebounding.

Lost through 1960 graduation were four seniors: Pat McGrath, Bill Gratsch, Wade Cousins, and Len Christman.

Viewing the Saint Mike's trophy, won this year for the first time in the Christmas Holiday Tournaments, are the seniors on the varsity team, Bill Gratsch, Wade Cousins, Len Christman, Larry Aagesen, Ron McCullick, and Pat McGrath (captain).

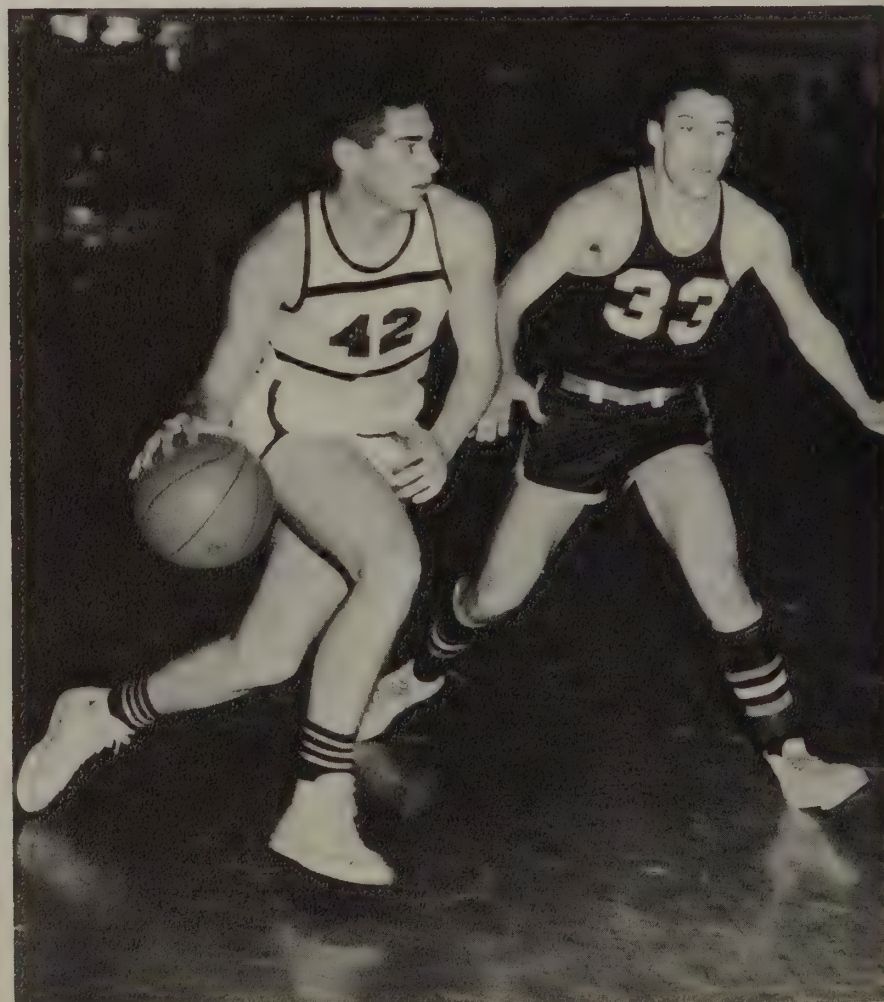

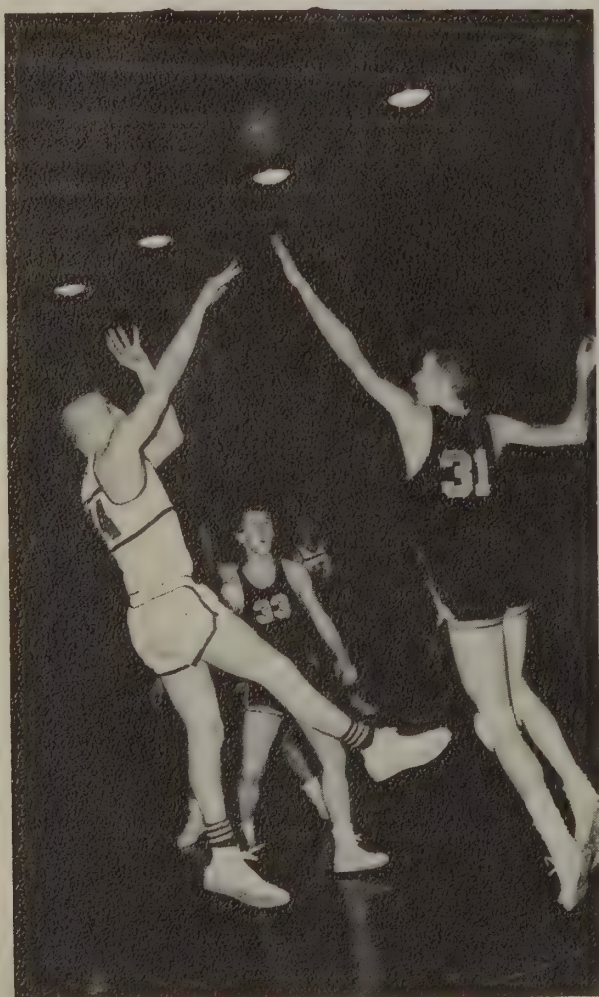

Junior Ron Gray focuses all attention on the rim as he drives in for another two points . . . no point is unimportant . . .

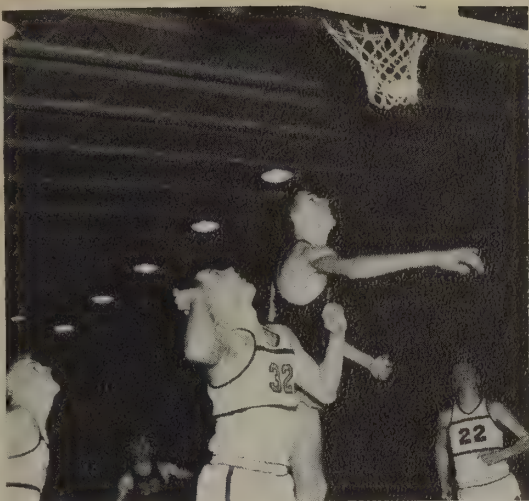

the Bobcats will testify to this after having won four games while dropping one by only a two-point margin.

. . . RETRACKING THE CATS

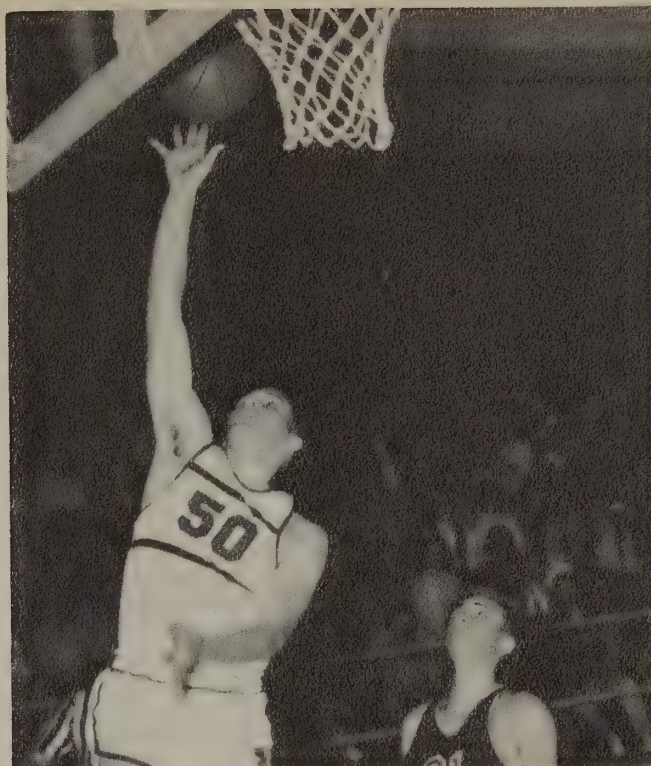

Len Christman gets his shot up in the air above Fenton center's hand in the league opener . . . The Bobcats suffered a two-point defeat to the Tigers in overtime . . .

Senior captain Pat McGrath edges around Clío's Jim Stephens . . . Pat's consistent rebounding and stamina added much to the total team effort this season . . .

Late-season starter, Larry Aagesen (32) goes up for a basket against Fenton. He is one of the five Seniors who will be lost through graduation this year.

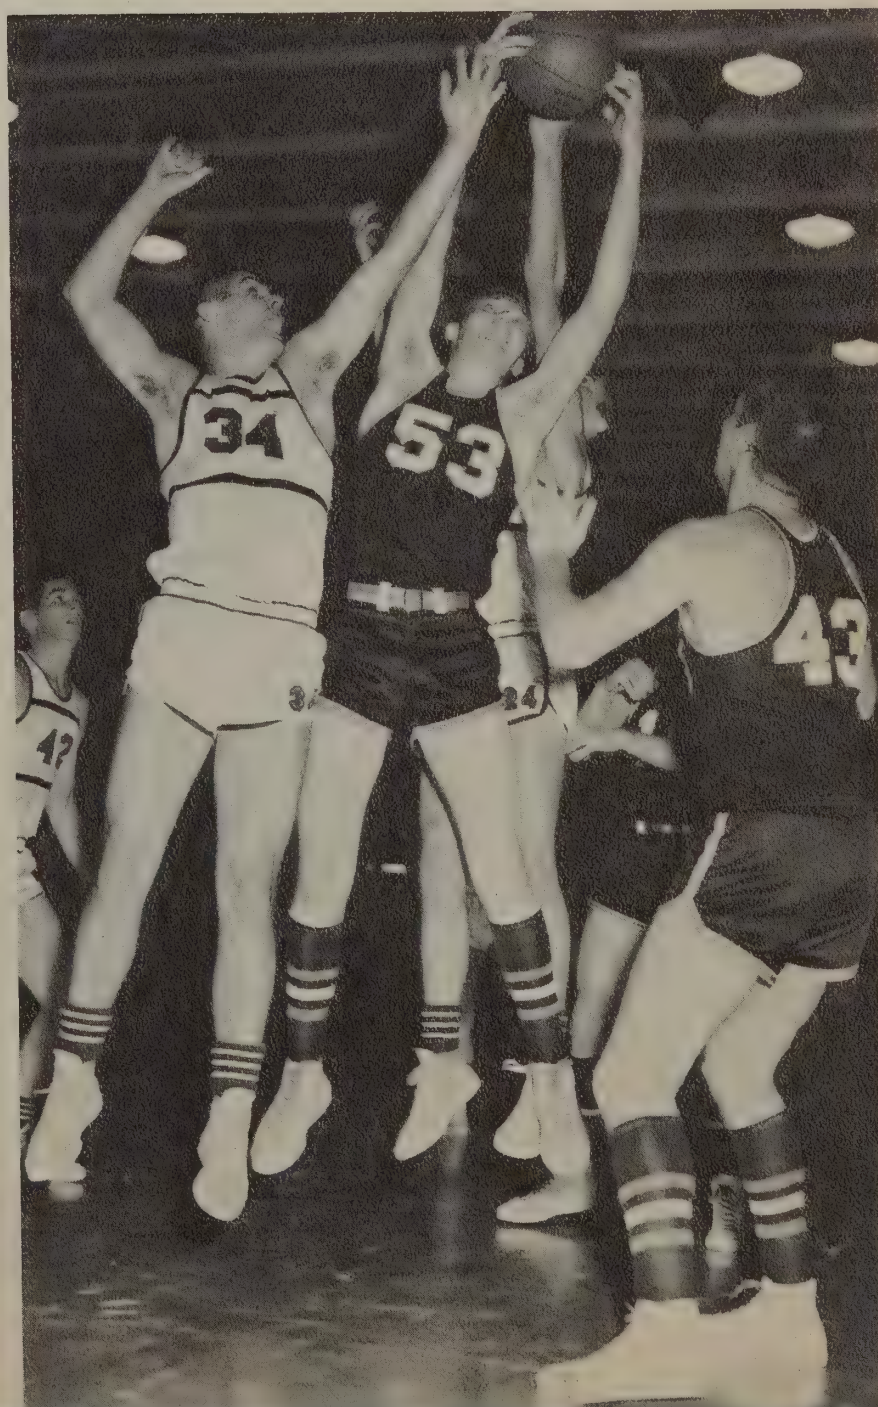

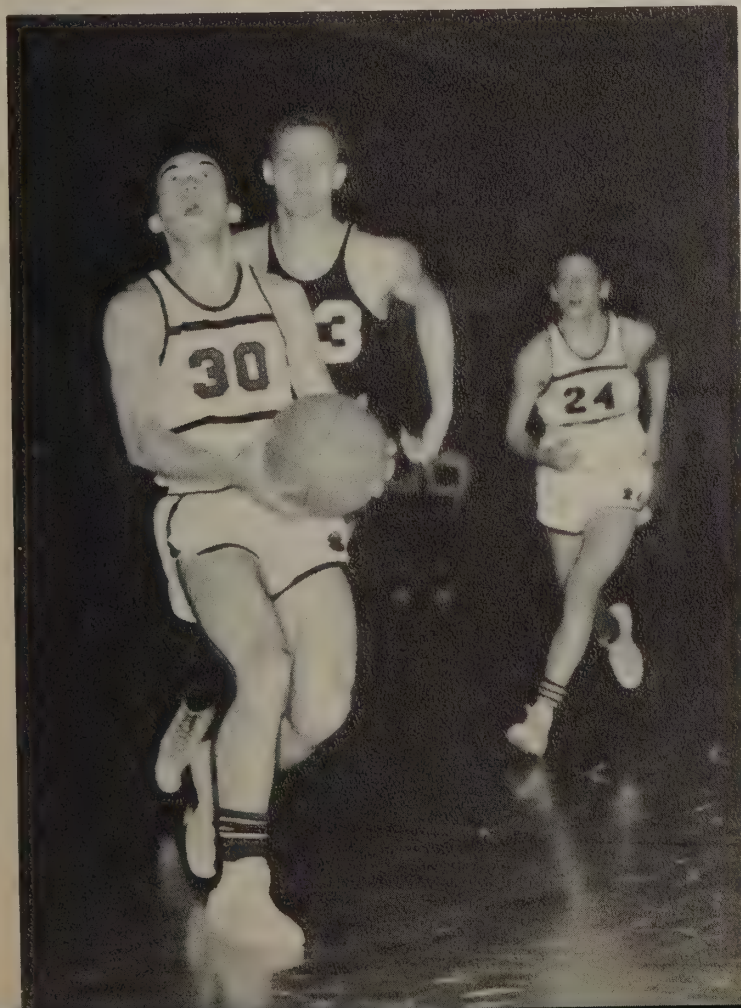

Senior Wade Cousins' first appearance on the varsity team perhaps came too late . . . the spunky forward showed continual progress as the season matured . . .

IN ACTION

"You can't win a ball game without possession of the ball" . . . Struggling to get their hands on that ball are Ken Burnett (34) and Ron Gray (24), two underclassmen who saw much action during the season . . .

Scrappy guard Bill Gratsch, the sparkplug of the St. Mikes Holiday Tournament, concentrates on another two points . . . leading in scoring, he accumulated during the season 284 points for an admirable 17.7 point average.

Glenn Duddles, Alex Gundry, Rick DeKett, Rick Hartker, Ron Coon, Ray Baumbach, Ron DeHart, Bart Vaughn, and Tom Jewett.

RESERVES COMPILE 9 - 7 RECORD

The reserve team finished with a season record of 9-7 . . . Mr. Chuck Creasey coaching his first year of basketball after graduation from Kentucky University, credited his team with much hard work, but noted their shortage of height and lack of experience . . . Sophomores.

Bart Vaughn and Rick Hartker led the Junior Bobcats in scoring . . . Hartker and Ron Coon commanded the boards as leading rebounders . . . Much is expected from Mr. Creasey and his teams in the coming years . . .

J. Tubbs, S. Mancour, G. Winer, J. Nyland, D. Darnton, Mr. Rule,
L. Ageson, F. Rockafellow, J. Karas, J. VanLoon.

GOLF ON THE UPSWING

Dick Darnton . . . "Top Swinger" . . .

G.B.'s Golf Team, though not having a winning season (4-6), had their best team in several years. Since the team lost only one member due to graduation, they hold high hopes for the coming season.

Top players were Dick Darnton, a consistent winner, and Jim Karas, a strong finisher. Both return for another season. Others returning are Jim Tubbs, Larry Ageson, and Stu Mancour.

HARRIERS SET A FAST PACE

Captain Randy Manuel and Mr. Lorion.

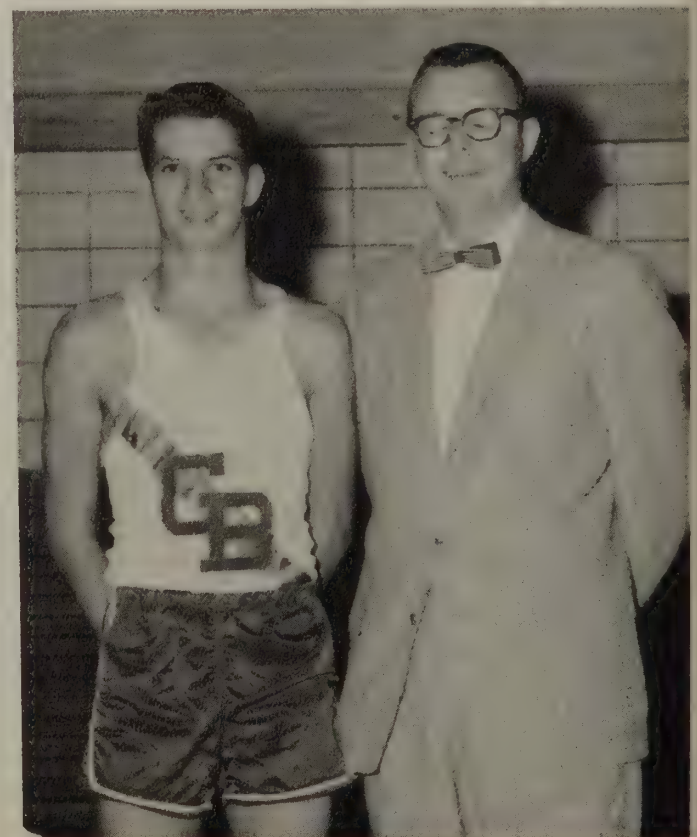

The 1959 Cross Country Harriers made a fine showing as they downed four opponents, while only being beaten twice. The Bobcats took third in the County Meet at Flint Central and seventh in the Regional at Lansing.

In the regular season, Coach Lorion's team downed its first three opponents, Mandeville, Flushing, and Kearsley before being upset by Fenton's Tigers. Another win was collected against Atherton before the season concluded with a loss to Davison.

Junior, Dave Steiner led the Grand Blanc runners, constantly placing first and second. Captain Randy Manual was the number-two man.

No men will be lost through 1960 graduation, so the prospects for next year's team look promising.

Letter winners were Steiner, Manual, Jewett, Melvin, Middleton, Bickersteth, and Fuller.

Row 1: A. Porritt, D. Beach, L. Sears, P. Maul, K. Bekofske, B. Byram, R. True, B. Vaughn, J. Pond, B. Rupp, and D. McClelland. Row 2: A. Liddell, D. McDonald, D. Hodson, K. Everson, B. Swift, C. Fuller, B. Johansen, B. Harburn, A. Draws, R. Manuel, D. Smith, R. Dekett,

THINCLADS BREAK RECORDS

Coaches Lorion and Thomas with senior co-captains, Ron Mraz and Carl Bekofske

Led by senior co-captains, Ron Mraz and Carl Bekofske, Grand Blanc's track team enjoyed a fine overall season. The schedule included 14 meets of which Grand Blanc won three and placed second in three.

Four school records were broken, one each by Ron McCullick and Bob Rupp, and two by Carl Bekofske. McCullick broke the old standard for the low hurdles with a new time of 20.5. Rupp's record run came in his specialty, the mile, which he ran in 4:45.

Carl Bekofske broke two records, one in the 100 yard dash (10.1) and the other in the total number of points scored during the course of the year (162 $\frac{1}{4}$).

The season's four leading scorers were senior Carl Bekofske, junior Ron McCullick (72 7/20), freshman Bart Vaughn (64 7/20) and junior Bob Rupp (48).

Experience gained by the many freshmen, sophomores, and juniors on the team will be invaluable to Coach Lorion in the 1960 season.

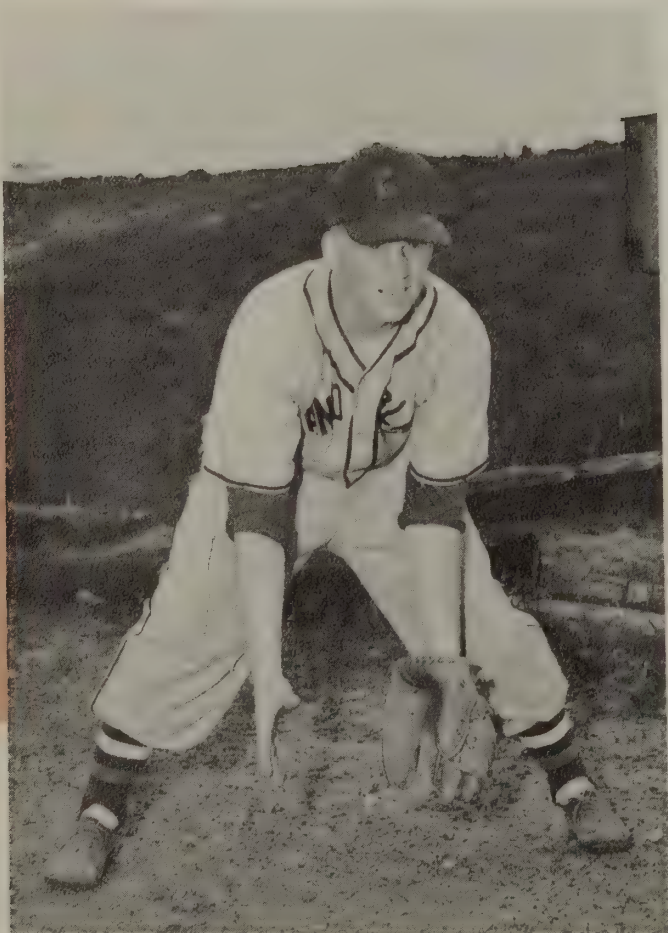

Row 1: J. Jasper, K. Mohan, D. Ginsberg, B. Gratsch, G. Story, P. McGrath, D. Winter, M. Maul, R. Darnell, D. Foran, B. Merrill, F. Ray, and Mr. Pitock. Row 2: P. Rupp, L. Christman, D. Starnes, D. Fowler, D. Rupp, and R. Hall.

Varsity and JV Bobcats

Dick Winter, Captain

The 1959 baseball season found both Coach Pitock and Coach Batchelor faced with the problem of inexperience. After losing seven starters through graduation, Coach Pitock had to start rebuilding. The varsity consisted of one freshman, four sophomores, five juniors, and only four seniors. Mr. Batchelor worked with five freshmen and 14 sophomores.

The leading hitter in varsity league play was Ron Darnell with a strong .444 average. The leading hitter for all games combined was Bill Gratsch with a .340 average. Ron Darnell was elected the "most valuable player."

The Varsity's season record was 6-11. The Reserves finished with a 5-4 record.

Row 1: Mr. Batchelor, T. Harada - Manager, M. Reed, D. Newman, D. Tirrell, R. Hampton, D. Markee, Max Whisner, M. Stowell, A. Neuville - Manager, and J. Litten. Row 2: R. Baumbach, T. McMillan, K.

Brinch, G. Gatlin, C. Woodbury, D. Clase, R. Hartker, F. Devendorf, B. Craton, B. Morrison, and J. Gundry.

SOFTBALL TEAM WINS TWO

Practicing every night . . . winning games . . . losing games . . .
hitting a homerun . . . making base hits, striking out . . . playing hard . . . cheering your teammates . . . scoring the winning run
. . . all these lead to a very exciting and memorable season . . .

The girl's softball team started their season early in the spring, their first game being on April 15. The first game was looked forward to with much anticipation, and all the practice seemed to be worthwhile since the score ended in GB's favor. The four following games, however, ended up with the Bobkittens on the short end of the score. The final contest, against Bendle on May 26, enabled the girls to finish the season victoriously with an 8-6 win.

Although the team did not win all its games, the season began and ended favorably.

Row 1: Sharon Stilson, Nancy Nyman, Martha Wilson, Claudia Day, Kathy Merrell, Nancy Gratsch, and Julie Roberts. Row 2: Mrs. Nagy, Nancy Myers, Kay Devendorf, Sandy Walton,

GIRLS BREAK 3 YEAR LOSING STREAK

Playing an 8-game season the Bobkittens finished with a 2-6 record . . . their many hours of practice paid off in enabling them to break a three-year losing streak . . . Mrs. Mary Ann Nagy, who came to Grand Blanc from Swartz Creek, was challenged by working with a young team —four freshmen, seven sophomores, five juniors, and only two seniors . . . El Rancho was the setting for the March 10 basketball banquet which concluded the season for all girls teams in the county.

Captain Dianne Suci shares the limelight with Bonnie Wilcox, co-captain.

Mrs. Nagy divided her time this year between coaching at the high school and teaching gym classes at McGrath.

Bonnie Wilcox and Shirley Piesko, the class of 60's only two members of the varsity team, commanded two of the starting guard positions . . . their height and aggressiveness proved valuable in getting the ball away from opponent's scorers . . . Bonnie completed her fourth year as a varsity team member while Shirley played her first, moving up this year from intramural competition . . .

Commencement . . . the beginning, not the end

In the spring of the year, the Seniors are at high point of their final year. There is a frenzy of activities and gatherings to be attended . . . the senior trip, the senior prom, the senior dinner, class night and the beginning of the graduation itself—Baccalaureate.

All too soon the time flies and the graduate finds himself proceeding with a fellow graduate to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Commencement usually brings a feeling of sadness when the graduate realizes that he will no longer return to his alma mater as a student, but from now on as an alumnus.

Upon giving the word commencement consideration, we find that it does not mean the end, but rather the beginning . . . the beginning of the application of the knowledge acquired in school . . . the beginning of putting to good use the fundamentals learned and the facing of problems which cannot be solved by a text book answer.

Commencement is truly the end of the most memorable years of one's life, but with commencement each graduate starts on his various way with the necessary hope in his heart for success . . . "The progress of the past is the promise of the future."

1962's production

THE BEST ... Juniors won first place honor by depicting a scene from Snow White

Gathered for the first Queen's Assembly was this array of beauties topped by 1958 Queen Norma Meyer ...
Dorothy Jamrog, Barb Baker, Sandy Methner, Carol Sexsmith, Mary Lynn Howell, Carol Jensen, Mary Guzak, and Kathy Muschett.

FROM BEGINNING OCT. 30 HIGHLIGHTS

... Yea Team ... Fight, Fight, Fight ... G.B. students take a breather between cheers at Homecoming pep meeting

... Our own Cinderella ... Queen Sandy Methner presides over the Homecoming Dance

TO END . . . FALL ACTIVITIES

The nights of dashing home from school and a quick "Bye, Mom, I'm going to work on the float" . . . the good times enjoyed and hard work put forth by each class . . . the exciting and impressing effect of the first Queen's Assembly . . . the dismissal of school for the parade through town . . . the joys and disappointments over the announcement of the float judging . . . the thrill of the kickoff starting the last game on home ground . . . the hush as Norma Meyer placed the newly purchased crown on the first Queen to wear it, Sandra Methner . . . the unfailing spirit of the students and alumni cheering the Bobcats on to a 13-13 tie . . . the 1959 HOMECOMING . . . a celebration not soon to be forgotten . . .

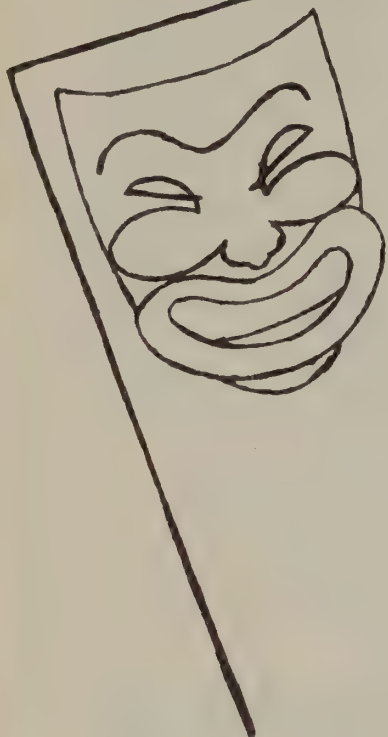

A magic moment . . . Norma Meyer places the crown on the new Queen, Sandy Methner.

Leading the Grande March to climax the 1959 Homecoming activities are Carol Sexsmith and Max Wisner, Barb Baker and Harvey Young, Mary Lynn Howell and Barry Johanson, Queen Sandra and Gary Aslin.

Annabelle Lee	Kay Hinkle
Deputy Sheriff	Dick Darnton
Gretchen Schozzledorf	Marilee Hartker
Student Director	Mary A. Maul
Stage Manager	Fred Barnes
Director	Miss Carol Rush

"Oh Lawsy!!!" . . . Eros tries putting his heart in his love scene with little help from Pearly . . .

"Hey—you can't do that!" . . . Pee Wee registers surprise and indignation as Wilberforce thoughtfully provides a chair for Minna . . .

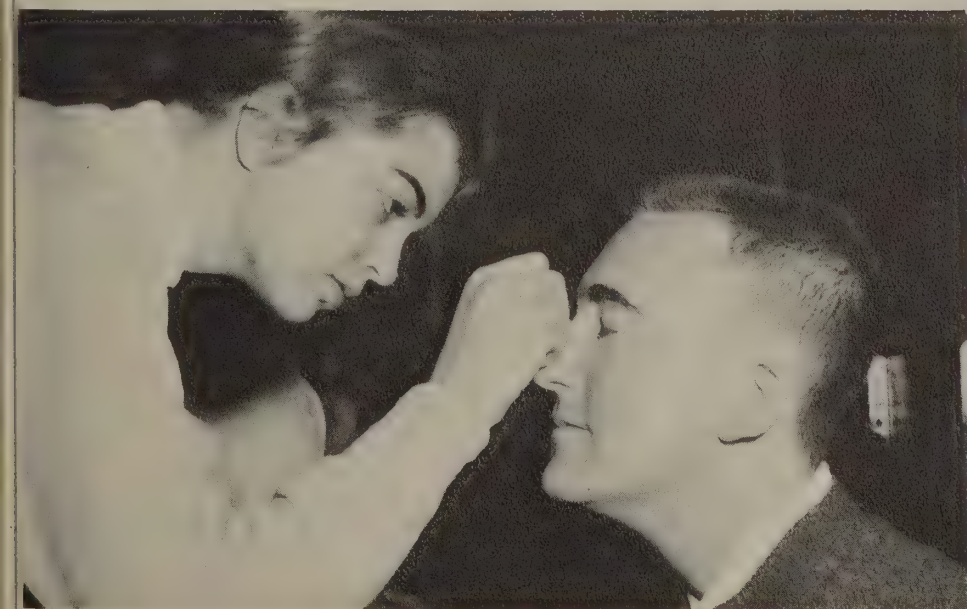

"Count Down!" . . . Duane Secore and Allen Duddles wait to dim the houselights . . .

WHETHER

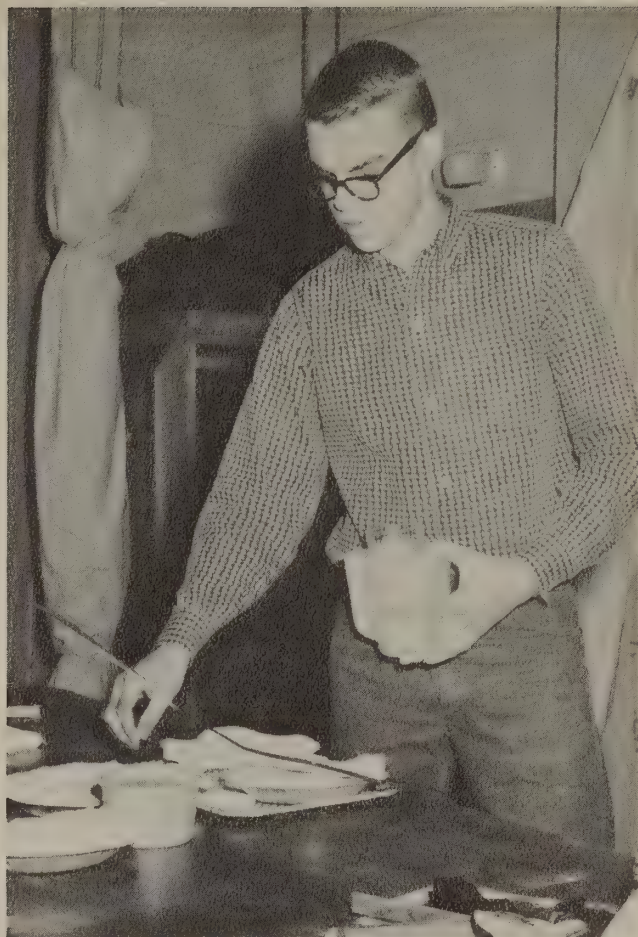

"Five minutes till we go on . . . Be Still! . . . Don't put so much on . . . Sharel McCann puts aging lines on Connie Thiel while Mary Ann Maul applies powder to Julie Tirrell to further change her appearance . . .

CREATING or APPRECIATING ... EVERYONE LOVES A PERFORMANCE

"Hold still . . . there now—don't move . . ." Jim Horton patiently suffers through the ordeal presented to him by Judy Slieff as she applies his makeup . . .

"Hmmm . . . Pies, Playbooks, Water, Vases . . . Yep, they're all there," Fred sighs . . .

"Is it that bad . . . Charlie?" Dianna Daniels asks as she applies more makeup to Dick Darnton.

"Boots" . . . by Rudyard Kipling . . .

"That's it! . . .
That's what I need . . .

6 weeks of planning days of preparation minutes of parental advice seconds of waiting and there's the bell!

"MOONLIGHT AND MISTLETOE"

Moonlight . . . Mistletoe . . . Music . . . The smell of pine . . . these combined last December 23 to give all those who attended the Senior Christmas Dance, "Moonlight and Mistletoe," a good time indeed.

With Jerome Wolbert and his orchestra providing a backdrop of music and sets of winter scenes contributing to the atmosphere the stage was set for an evening no one will soon forget.

"Sorry, Dick . . . but even Seniors have to pay for refreshments,"—quips Paula Hogard.

Music . . . music . . . music furnished by the Jerome Wolbert Orchestra was light, airy . . . in the spirit of Christmas.

With such dreamy atmosphere and music it's hard to keep from dancing!

The beginning of a wonderful evening . . . Sharel Lorimer, Marge Clinton and Paul Londrigan are looking forward to a good time.

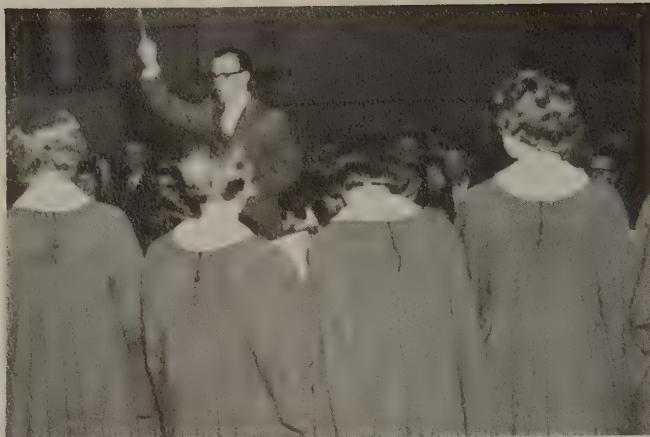

MATCH MOOD FOR CHRISTMAS DANCE . . .

"It's been a swell night . . . The dance, the dinner, the ride, everything . . . I wish it would never end . . . Thanks for a wonderful evening."

The drummer boys in cadet band express enjoyment . . . the reason: a successful performance.

1 . . 2 . . ready . . . SING . . . with a lively tempo and livelier director the Choir never fails to provide enjoyment for all.

"And down the chimney he came with a bound" . . . so sang the Girls Octette.

G B MUSICIANS SHARE IN

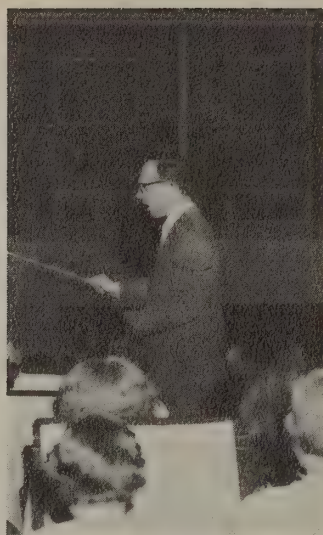

"Altogether now . . . 1 2 3 . . . Mr. Thorsby and the Senior Band did a fine job at all concerts in which they appeared.

Music, music, music . . . the Glee Club provided enjoyable entertainment.

"Seventy-six trombones" . . . even though we have far less than that number, all agree that the trombone section reflects the talents and scope of the entire band.

"Ok, now, bring it out, horns"

Encore! Encore!

UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE

Strike up the Band" . . . "With the sound of voices" . . . the music department under a baton shared by Mr. Thorsby, Mr. Ryan, and Miss Barker provided enjoyment for a great many people during the past school year.

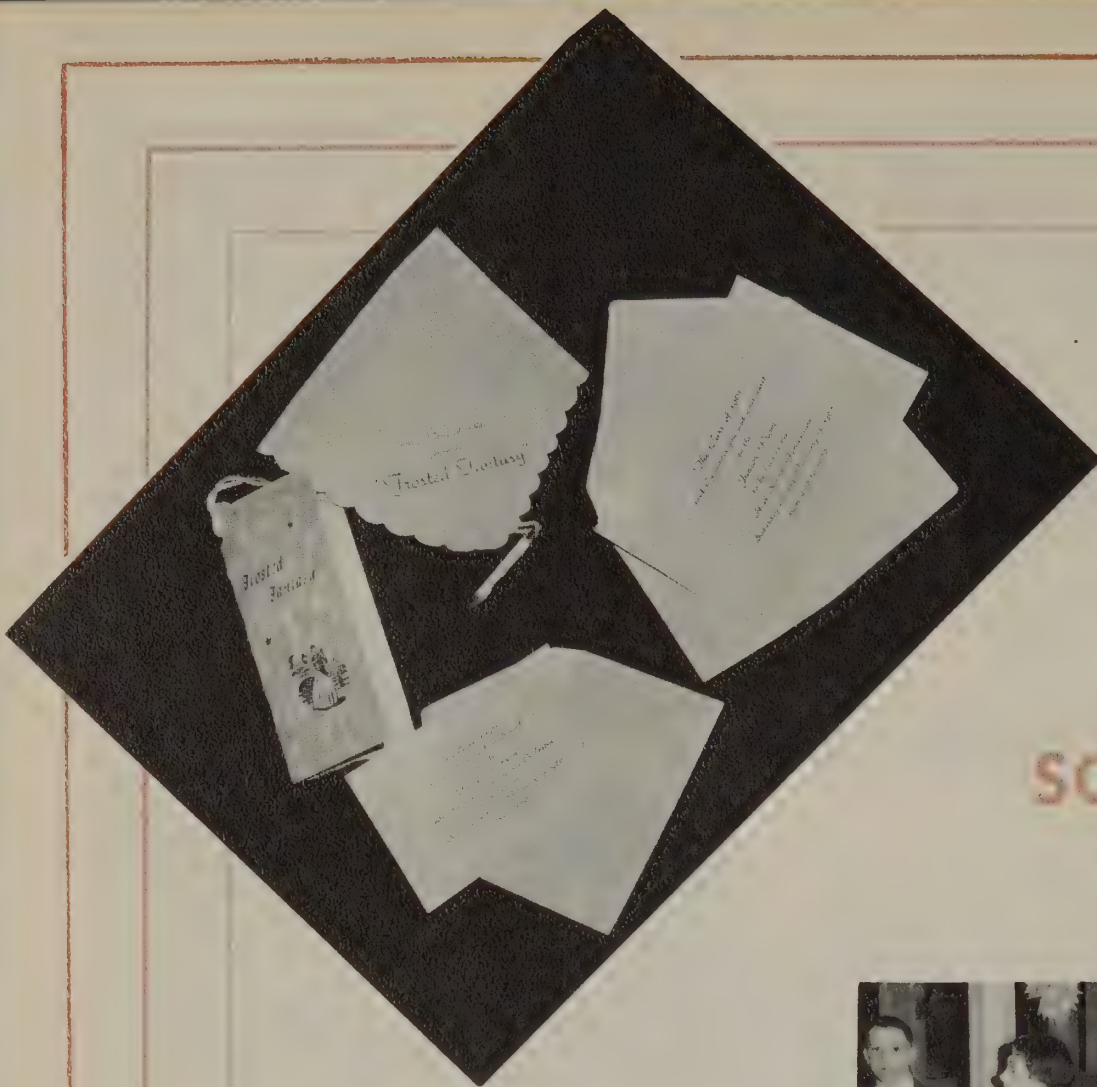

The programs presented to the student body and public were many and varied . . . included were the annual Spring Concert featuring all four music groups; the operetta "Down in the Valley," A Cappella Choir's production; commencement with the band giving their rendition for the graduates' processional and recessional, and the choir presenting several selections; the Christmas Concert featuring festive holiday tunes . . . not to mention the several assemblies presented for the student body alone.

For Glee Club, Miss Barker competently manipulates both jobs of director and accompanist.

Are you all ready? . . . Choir members express various emotions as they prepare for another performance

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHT

10:00 Chatting about the lovely decorations, the frothy formals, the unusual corsages . . . wondering who will be King and Queen . . .

11:00 The evening's highlight—crowning the King and Queen, Joe Gawron and Patti Decker.

11:30 The lights are snapped on . . . all couples are in the spotlight . . . at last, the Grand March 9:00 Checking in . . . making sure you've got your ticket . . . picking up your dance program . . .

9:15 The Gym has been transformed to a Winter Wonderland . . . isn't it beautiful?

OF THE YEAR . . .

THE 1960 J-HOP

10:30 A remembrance to cherish always: the photo of you and your date.

Snowflakes . . . music . . . The 1960 Junior Prom . . . "Frosted Fantasy" . . . dreamy music by Paul Dunlop and his orchestra . . . excitement of having pictures taken . . . crowning of King and Queen, Joe Gawron and Patti Decker . . . the Grand March . . . led by the four royal couples . . . talking with friends . . . dancing with your date . . . afterwards going to Ted's for something to eat . . . wonderful date . . . wonderful evening!

12:00 The last minute chatter before leaving for Ted's . . . making sure no one orders until all are there . . .

"I was talking to the gang at the drug store . . .

"WOULD YOU LIKE TO

"Do you know if there's a dance . . .

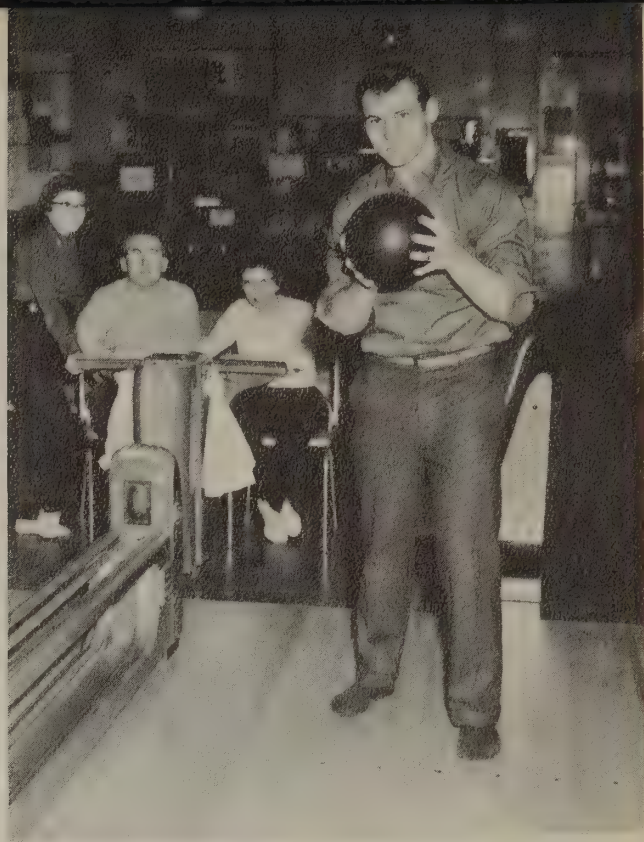

or a party?"

"Afterwards we can go get pizza . . .

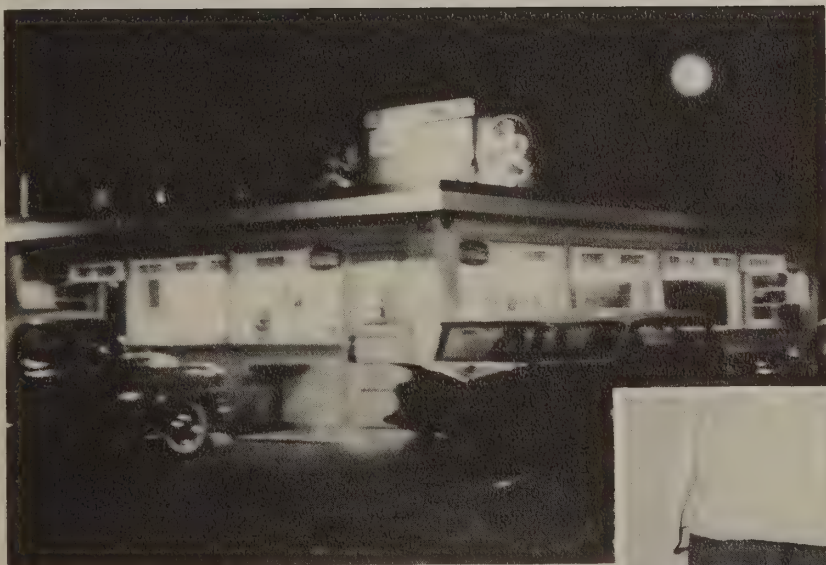

and they said there's a good show at the Center . . .

but some of the kids are going bowling."

DO ANYTHING SPECIAL FRIDAY NIGHT?"

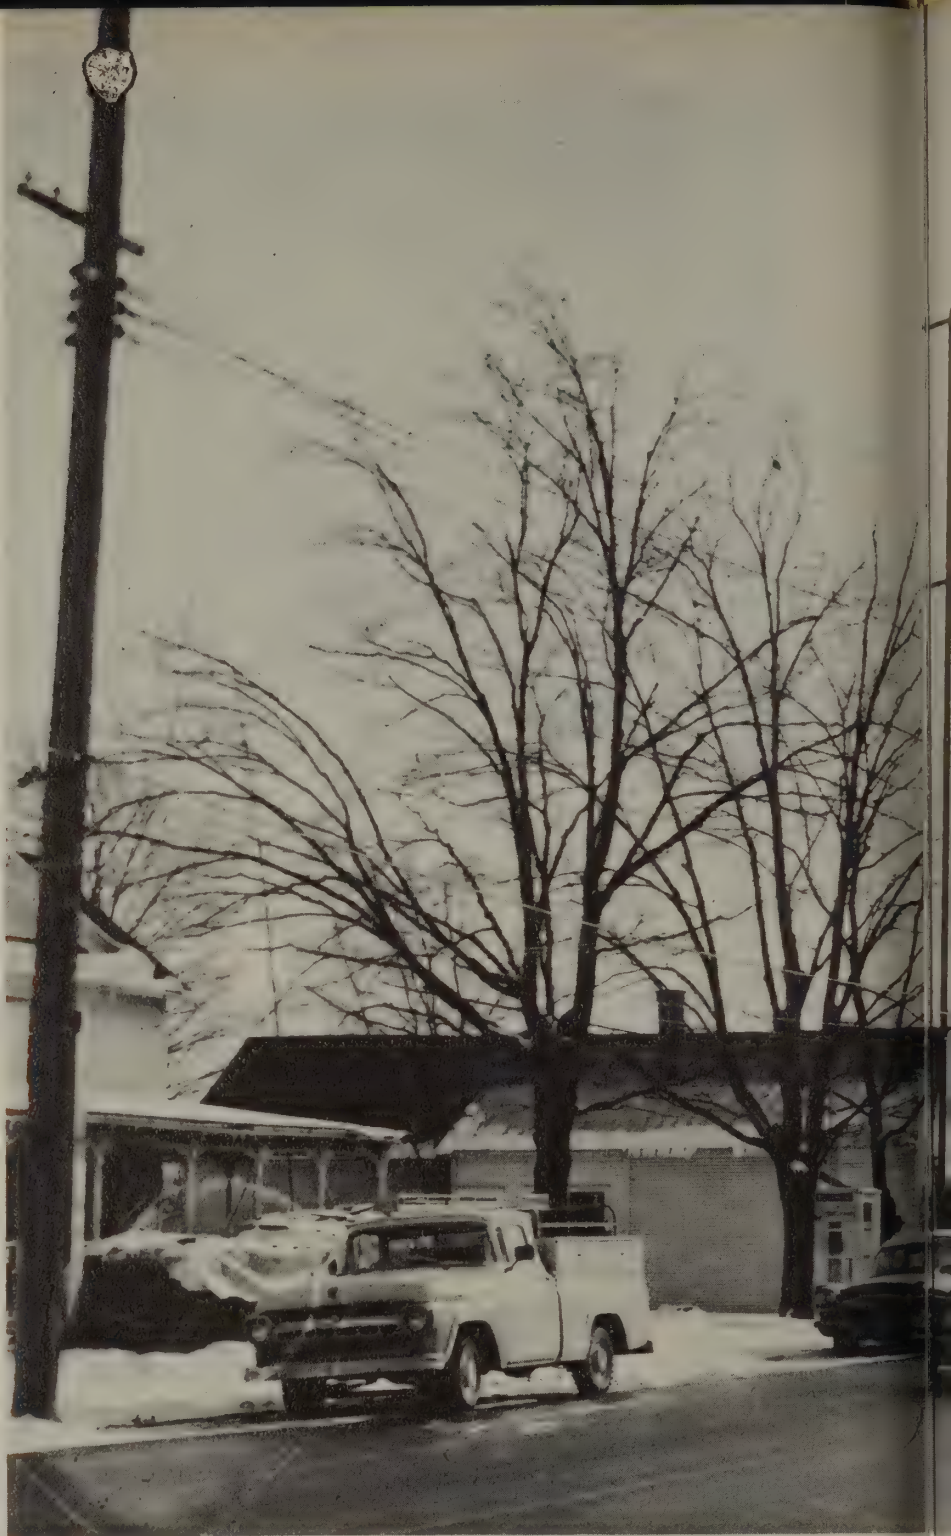

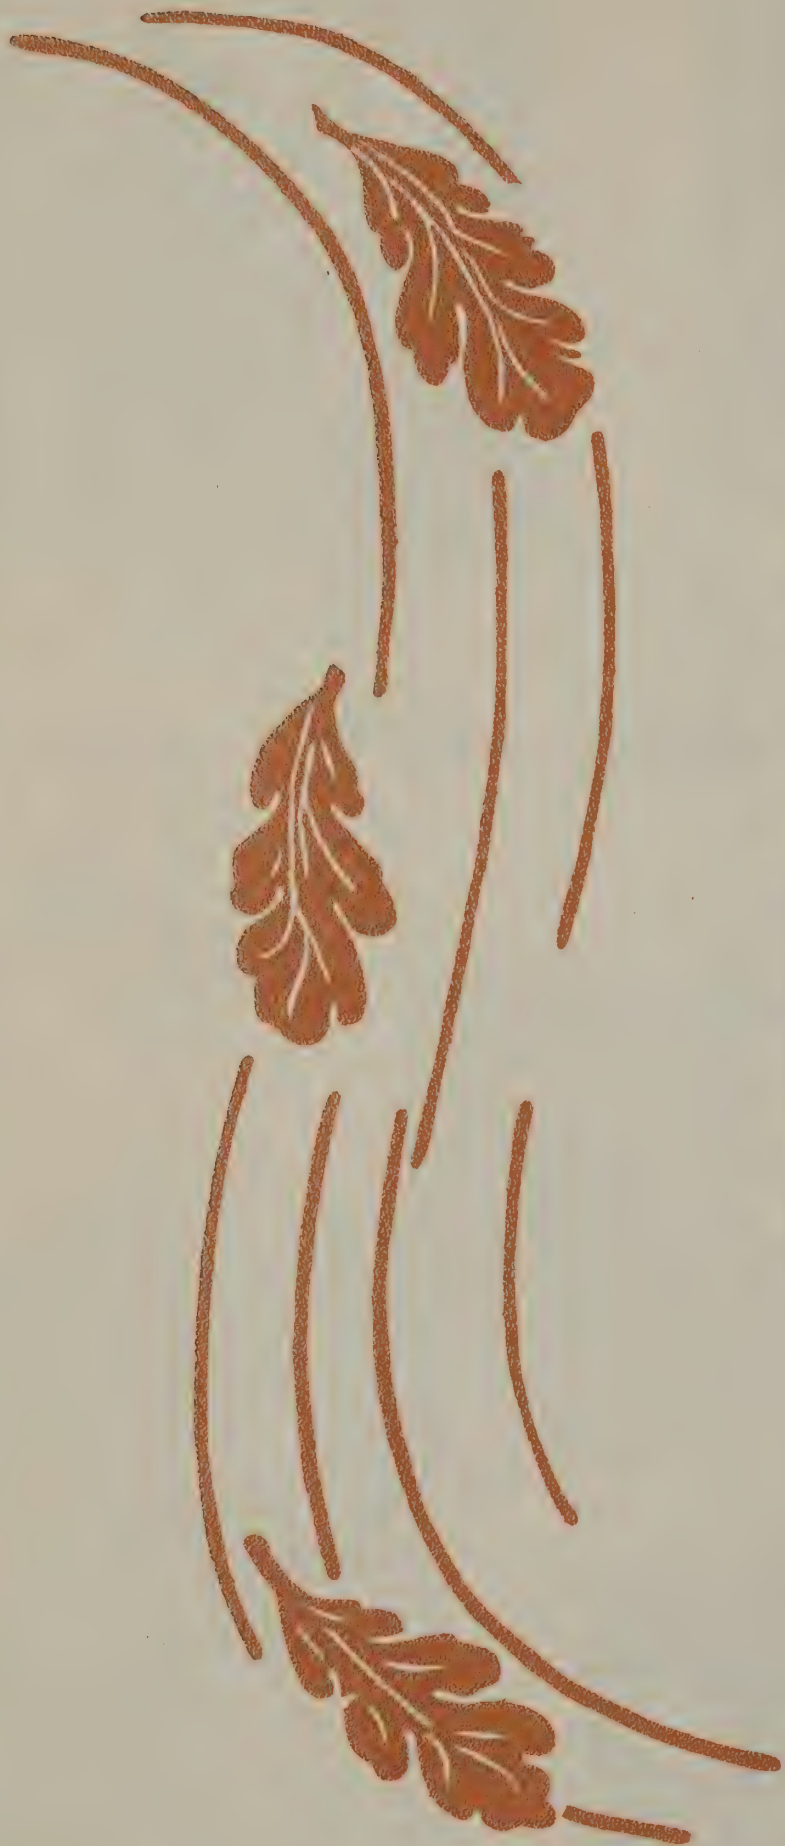

then we can always go to Johnson's . . .

or something!"
